Interact with our standing group on Facebook & twitter

Our standing group now also made a “closed group” on Facebook (look for “Teaching and Learning Politics) in order to facilitate communication, sharing, interaction etc between members. Please join us and share: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/158025784825432/>. And also follow us on Twitter: @ECPRTeaching.

CfP: Submit your proposal for ECPR General Conference 2018 in Hamburg – until 15 February

In 2018, the ECPR Standing Group Teaching and Learning politics will once again be represented with seven panels at the ECPR General Conference in Hamburg:

1. Innovating Political Science
2. Evidence-based teaching in political science
3. New Designs for Political Science Teaching
4. Citizenship and Higher Education
5. Teaching and learning analytical skills in political science
6. Working with practitioners
7. Open Panel

Individual Papers can be submitted until 15 February 2017 (midnight UK time). Please check here for paper submission. To pre-discuss proposals, please contact the section convenors Ulrich Hamenstädt and Chris Goldsmith. We look forward to all paper proposals.

If you are willing to volunteer as chair or discussant for any of the panels, please get in touch with the section convenors.

3rd European Teaching & Learning Conference in Prague, 31 May-1 June 2018

It is going to be an interactive conference! The programme for our 3rd European Teaching and Learning Conference in Prague (31 May – 1 June 2018) is going live on Monday 5 February. Check our conference website and get ready to register in time! Registration is open until 1 May 2018.

Teaching EU-Turkey relations – workshop around EuroTLC (Deadline extended: 5 Feb 2018)

The VIADUCT network is organizing a training workshop on teaching EU-Turkey relations, which will be complemented by our EuroTLC (see details attached). In addition to the two conference days, there will be a training workshop on 30 May (one day before EuroTLC) and there will be final concluding session after the EuroTLC on Friday afternoon. Travel and accommodation for this training activity will be covered. There are still places left for this training. In case you are interested, please get in touch with Tomas Weiss (weiss@fsv.cuni.cz) by 5 February.
