

European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR) Standing Group on Citizenship:

Citizenship and Identity Workshop

University of Portsmouth, Dennis Sciama Building 1.02
7-8 June 2017

Sponsored by the Institute for Teacher Education, (ILU) Norwegian University for Science and Technology, Trondheim and the University of Portsmouth's Citizenship, 'Race' and Belonging Research Group

Workshop Schedule:

1 hour spent on each paper, including:

- 10 minutes for presentation
- 10 minutes per discussant
 - Paper Givers are anticipated to serve as discussants on a rotating basis.
 - If you are on a panel with 2 other papers, we would like to ask that you read these two papers and be ready to comment on them for about 10 minutes each.
- 30 minutes open Q&A
 - Please try to read more than two papers for the purposes of productive and lively Q&A

Day One: Wed 7th June 2017

10.30-11.00	Registration and Refreshments
11.00 - 11.15	Introduction and Welcome to the University of Portsmouth: Prof. Trond Solhaug, Dr Niels Nørgaard Kristensen and Dr Nora Siklodi
11.15-13.15	<table border="1"> <tr> <td>The Concept of Political Identity</td> <td colspan="2">Contemporary processes of exclusion of citizens with religious identities from public space</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Trond Solhaug, NTNU, Norway Niels Nørgaard Kristensen, Aalborg University, Denmark Nora Siklodi, University of Portsmouth, UK</td> <td colspan="2">Simon Thompson University of the West of England, Bristol, UK</td> </tr> </table>			The Concept of Political Identity	Contemporary processes of exclusion of citizens with religious identities from public space		Trond Solhaug, NTNU, Norway Niels Nørgaard Kristensen, Aalborg University, Denmark Nora Siklodi, University of Portsmouth, UK	Simon Thompson University of the West of England, Bristol, UK
The Concept of Political Identity	Contemporary processes of exclusion of citizens with religious identities from public space
Trond Solhaug, NTNU, Norway Niels Nørgaard Kristensen, Aalborg University, Denmark Nora Siklodi, University of Portsmouth, UK	Simon Thompson University of the West of England, Bristol, UK
13.15-14.00	Lunch Break
14.00-14.45	Keynote presentation and Q&A Brown female bodies: Intersectional reflections on identity and citizenship Olivia Rutazibwa, University of Portsmouth, UK
15.00-18.00	3 Papers and Discussant Roles
	<table border="1"> <tr> <td>Reconnected Nation and Political Interests – Extra-territorial citizenship for diaspora and the case of Hungarians living in Canada</td> <td>The Looking Glass Self: Citizenship Testing Materials in France and the UK</td> <td>Moulding a Wanted Wife: Politicised and Gendered Citizenship Awarding of Chinese Marriage Immigrants in Taiwan</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ágnes Vass Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary</td> <td>Karolina Czerska-Shaw Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland</td> <td>Yu-chin Tseng University of Tübingen, Germany</td> </tr> </table>			Reconnected Nation and Political Interests – Extra-territorial citizenship for diaspora and the case of Hungarians living in Canada	The Looking Glass Self: Citizenship Testing Materials in France and the UK	Moulding a Wanted Wife: Politicised and Gendered Citizenship Awarding of Chinese Marriage Immigrants in Taiwan	Ágnes Vass Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary	Karolina Czerska-Shaw Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland	Yu-chin Tseng University of Tübingen, Germany
Reconnected Nation and Political Interests – Extra-territorial citizenship for diaspora and the case of Hungarians living in Canada	The Looking Glass Self: Citizenship Testing Materials in France and the UK	Moulding a Wanted Wife: Politicised and Gendered Citizenship Awarding of Chinese Marriage Immigrants in Taiwan
Ágnes Vass Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary	Karolina Czerska-Shaw Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland	Yu-chin Tseng University of Tübingen, Germany
19.30-22.00	Evening Dinner: Still and West (Table booked for 7.30pm, under the name of Nora Siklodi/ University of Portsmouth)

Day Two: Thursday, 8th June 2017

8.45-09.00	Refreshments
9.00-12.00	3 Papers and Discussant Roles
Illiberal citizenship: Populist nationalism in Hungary		Dual Nationality in France and Belgium: Towards a Postmodern Citizenship?	Ishaq v. Canada: faith, identity, citizenship
Robert Sata Central European University, Hungary		Vincent Tournier , Institut d'études politiques de Grenoble – PACTE and Bernard Fournier Vrije Universiteit, Brussels, Belgium	Francesca Raimondo University of Bologna, Italy
12.00-12.45	Lunch
12.45-15.45	3 Papers and Discussant Roles
The limits of diversity in European unity: Migration attitudes and European identification in the aftermath of the refugee and migrant crisis		The status of long-term resident: a step towards inclusion or exclusion	Identifying With or Against – a Cross-Country Comparison of European Identities Amongst the Highly Educated
Aleksandra Sojka Harvard University, USA & University of Granada, Spain		Behnam Balalimood University of Reading, UK	Sybille Luhmann Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany
15.45-16.00	Closing Remarks		