

DRAWING THE BOUNDARIES OF SOUTHERN EUROPE: ISSUES AND CHALLENGES.

Our section has been accepted for the 11th ECPR General Conference at Universitetet i Oslo (6-9 September 2017).

The Academic Convenors have provisionally allocated our Section 7 Panels. There may be a possibility to increase the allocation with 1 or 2 additional Panels in light of proven demand.

We remind you that the general aim of the Section is to identify the distinctive features/peculiarities, if any, of Southern European politics and political processes by exploring the dynamics of convergence and divergence that have characterised the region, as well as the relationship between Europe's South and North, in the last decade.
