

Guidelines for co-funding events by the ECPR SGIR

The ECPR Standing Group on International Relations (SGIR) invites applications from its members for co-funding events benefitting the internationalization of IR scholarship in Europe. Applications can be made on a rolling basis.

Opportunities for funding

Co-funding is usually limited to EUR 1,000 for events with up to 10 participants, EUR 2,000 with up to 20 participants, and EUR 3,000 for events with up to 30 participants. For larger events, higher amounts will be considered. Please allow up to 3 months for approval from the SGIR Steering Committee and ECPR Executive Committee. Successful applicants will need to invoice ECPR for the full amount awarded. The final transfer by the ECPR can take up to 4 weeks after the invoice has been sent. Please keep this timeline in mind when submitting your request.

How to apply

To apply for co-funding, please send us a short description of the event including

- Title
- Date
- Location
- Format
- 200-word abstract

Please also outline in max. 200 words how the co-funding by the ECPR SGIR will be acknowledged (e.g., including the ECPR logo in the programme/event homepage, tagging the ECPR in at least some social media posts, mentioning our support at the opening and closing of the event). We also require a short final summary after the event to keep a record of all events we have funded.

Criteria

When considering funding requests, priority will be given to events that bring together a higher number of universities from different countries (minimum three countries), higher share of female participants, balance of colleagues at different stages of their careers, higher share of participants from ECPR member institutions. We also fund interdisciplinary events but, in line with the mandate of our standing group, we require a substantial share of the event to benefit the field of IR.
